LOGO COURSE FOR TEACHERS OFFERED IN POLSON

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana will offer a five-day course in Polson on the computer language Logo. The course, designed primarily for elementary and secondary school teachers, will run Monday through Friday, Aug. 19-23, at Polson High School.

UM mathematics professor Rick Billstein and Bob Gunderson of the Polson High School Computer Science Department will teach the course.

They will discuss the latest Logo materials as well as the history, philosophy and implications of Logo. Participants will learn to write logo procedures. No previous computer experience is necessary.

Those who complete the course and a post-course assignment will earn two undergraduate credits from the University of Montana.

The fee for the course is $70. Enrollment is limited to 14. The deadline for pre-registration and fee payment is August 12.

To register contact the UM Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs, 125 Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812 or call 243-4626 or 243-2900.
